A well-positioned four-bedroom detached home, set within a peaceful cul-de-sac in the heart of Alveston village.

Built by Banner Homes in 2007, this attractive property enjoys a prime spot overlooking a green with the village church beyond—complete with the occasional sound of church bells.

The ground floor offers excellent living space. Off the generous hallway is a dual-aspect dining room with bay window, two built-in storage cupboards, and a large downstairs cloakroom. To the rear, the open-plan kitchen/breakfast room features plenty of worktop space, built-in appliances, and French doors to the garden. A utility room provides useful side access. The sitting room is spacious and welcoming, with a central fireplace and another set of French doors opening to the garden.

Upstairs, all four bedrooms are doubles, two of which benefit from built-in wardrobes. The main bedroom has an en-suite, and the family bathroom has been stylishly refitted. An airing cupboard houses the boiler.

Outside, the wraparound garden is part-walled and well-stocked, with a 'secret' decked area to the side for private seating. The property also includes a garage with an electric up-and-over door, and a parking space in front.

An estate charge, currently set at £250 per annum, goes towards the upkeep of the private road as and when needed.
