MAIN COURSE

A three-bedroom semi-detached house enjoying lovely countryside views.

Inside, the property offers a light and airy living room with windows to the front and rear, bringing in plenty of natural light throughout the day. The kitchen is a good size, with space for a small dining table—ideal for casual meals or morning coffee—and there's a useful utility room just off it, complete with an additional sink and storage space.

Upstairs, you'll find a generous main bedroom with views over the fields, a second double bedroom, and a third single room that could work well as a nursery, home office, or dressing room. The bathroom includes a shower over the bath.

Outside, the large rear garden provides a great space for children to play or for anyone wanting to enjoy time outdoors. There's also a detached garage offering additional storage or secure parking.

Available start of June.
